The Knock-out Blow.

The blow which knocked out Corbett was a revelation to the prize fighters. From the earliest days of the ring the knock-out blow was aimed for the jaw, the temple or the jugular vein. Stomach punches were thrown in to worry and weary the fighter, but if a scientific man had told one of the old fighters that the most vulnerable spot was the region of the stomach, he'd have laughed at him for an ignoramus. Dr. Pierce is bringing home to the public a parallel fact; that the stomach is the most vulnerable organ of the body as well as in it. We protect our heads, throats, feet and lungs, but the stomach is utterly indifferent to, until disease finds the solar plexus and knocks us out. Make your stomach sound and strong by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and you protect your health and your life.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" has a specific curative effect upon all mucous membranes and hence cures catarrh, no matter where located or what stage it may have reached. In Nasal Catarrh it is well to cleanse the passages with Dr. Pierce's Catarrh Remedy while using the "Discovery" as a constitutional remedy. Why the "Golden Medical Discovery" cures catarrhal diseases, as of the stomach, bowels, bladder and other pelvic organs will be plain to you if you will read a booklet of extracts from the writings of eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients and explaining their curative properties. It is mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. This booklet gives all the ingredients entering into Dr. Pierce's medicines from which it will be seen that they contain not a drop of alcohol, pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Advisor will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 21 stamps. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

PHARAOH HAD TOOTHACHE!

To German science belongs the credit of explaining what hitherto has been the inexplicable secret of the inconsistent conduct of Pharaoh—the Pharaoh of the Exodus. According to the Scriptural phrase, "the Lord (Pharaoh) hardened his heart," and then proceeded to indulge in conduct which was not merely inconsistent with his previous treatment of the Jews, but was surprising to a degree in a great monarch such as this King of the Egyptians undoubtedly must have been.

Despite the recent suggestion that Site II was the Pharaoh of Exodus, the preponderance of archaeological opinion is that Professor Flinders-Petrie sufficiently proved that it was Menephtah II whom Moses had to deal with. Now the mummified remains of Menephtah II repose in Cairo, and there they have been minutely examined by a German servant, who is able to state, as a result of his studies, that Menephtah II was about 60 years old when he died, in 1215 B. C.; that he was 5 feet 3 inches in stature, and that he was rather stout of build and bald save for a very few gray hairs. Moreover, according to our German friend, Menephtah's teeth were full of cavities, in which the exposed nerves must have throbbed in such fashion as would throw their owner into fits of violent temper. As Shakespeare said long afterward, "There was never yet philosopher that could endure the toothache patiently." Menephtah's blood vessels and ribs, furthermore, show unmistakable evidence of chalky degeneration—an undoubted sign of acute gout.

The profession of cruelty, fear, rage, repentance and despair in the Mosaic account is not incomprehensible in an autocrat suffering from gout and toothache.

CHURCH ON WHEELS.

The Catholic Church Extension Society of America, of whose board of governors Archbishop Quigley, of Chicago, is chairman, has lately put in the missionary field a chapel car, commonly called "The Church on Wheels." The car, which is named St. Anthony, cost $20,000 and was the gift of Mr. A. Peiry, of New York, is furnished with an altar, a tabernacle, gilt crucifix and tall candlesticks, a chancel, organ, holy water font, stations of the cross and a confessional—in a word, everything that goes to make up a thoroughly equipped Roman Catholic church.

The object of St. Anthony's chapel car is to carry the gospel to the sparsely settled communities and outlying districts of civilization where there is no church and the missionary has seldom or never penetrated. The first occupants of the car on its initial trip were Bishop Hennessey, of Wichita; Rev. T. A. McKernan, C. G. Hennessey and the porter, who was also the cook. The railroads haul the car free, and its coming is always heralded in advance.

The chapel car has made several trips, since, and so great has been the success of its mission that it is rumored that two more chapel cars will soon follow in the wake of St. Anthony.

Cause of Stomach Troubles. When a man has trouble with his stomach you may know that he is eating more than he should or of some article of food or drink not suited to his age or occupation, or that his bowels are habitually constipated. Take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to regulate the bowels and improve the digestion and see if the trouble does not disappear. Ask for a free sample. Sold by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts gently yet promptly on the bowels and allays inflammation at the same time. It is pleasant to take. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

CONGREGATION ARRESTED.
The curfew law of Gainesville, Ga., which has been in abeyance for years, was enforced Saturday night against a congregation of the Holiness Sect, and 150 men and women were put under arrest.

The curfew law requires that all persons in Gainesville shall be at their homes, unless for cause, by 11 o'clock. The Holiness Sect is strong there, and has been holding nightly meetings, which continued until far after midnight. These meetings have been characterized by the wildest display of feeling, "holy" dancing, "holy" roll ing, shouting, healing, cries in unknown tongues, and the like.

The portion of the city where the meetings have been held grew weary of the nightly orgies and complained to the city authorities. Saturday night at 11 o'clock the Pentecostal Church was raided by the police and the entire congregation arrested. The recorder was at the city hall and tried the people as soon as they were brought in. He imposed nominal fines on the leaders and warned the congregation that meetings must be closed promptly at 10 o'clock every night.
